The Continental Crossroads

The future is uncertain. Your location is not. Lehigh 309 Logistics guarantees your business a prime position in a lower-cost, high-efficiency region with direct access to the most important ports on the Eastern seaboard.

Equidistant from Philadelphia and New York City, and just over three hours to Northern Virginia, Lehigh 309 Logistics provides exceptional flexibility when managing your operations.

The I-78 corridor connects you seamlessly to the Port of New York and New Jersey without congestion or delay, and a Pennsylvania location offers lower costs compared to New Jersey.

Here, one day's drive reaches a quarter of the population and purchasing power of North America. It's why Lehigh Valley is home to major distribution centers for global leaders.

Expand Your Consumer Reach

At Lehigh 309 Logistics, half a trillion in aggregate yearly e-commerce spending is reachable within two hours. With 86M people inside a day's drive, a full quarter of the U.S. population are potential customers for e-commerce, retail or food and beverage.
